SUGAR MEN TO STAND TRIAL?

Parsons Will Not Take Advantage of the Statute of Limitations.

New York, Oct. 29.—John E. Parsons, counsel for the American Sugar Refining company, is quoted as saying that he and his fellow directors who were indicted in the Pennsylvania Sugar company conspiracy cases, would not take advantage of the statute of limitations as construed by Judge Holt of the United States circuit court. Mr. Parsons is said to have put the decision received by himself and his associates as follows: "It wouldn't show good sporting blood for us to take shelter behind this technicality. We'll fight the thing out."

It's a Top Notch Doer.

Great deeds compel regard. The world crowns its doers. That's why the American people have crowned Dr. King's New Discovery the king of throat and lung remedies. Every atom is a health force.
It kills germs, and cures colds and grippe vanish. It heals cough racked membranes and coughing stops. Sore, inflamed bronchial tubes and lungs are cured and hemorrhages cease. Dr. Geo.
More, Black Jack, N. C., writes "It cured me of lung trouble, pronounced hopeless by all doctors." 50c, $1.00. Trial bottle
